

The Register-Guard

---

Entertainment & Life

'So Small' makes big impact with scholarships

By The Register-Guard

Posted at 8:26 AM

Updated at 12:17 PM

Oregon Supported Living Program's (OSLP) Arts & Culture Program presents its annual miniature art auction and benefit, "So Small," in the Broadway Commerce Center lobby on Saturday.

Now in its seventh year, this celebratory evening will feature art, beverages, friends and bidding wars on more than 600 pieces of donated miniature art from around the country. From a tiny felted giraffe to lovely little jewelry, miniature succulent plantscapes to petite sculptures, each small piece carries a larger story.

Each small piece also makes a big impact. The sale of art from the silent auction will benefit OSLP Arts & Culture Program's Scholarship Fund, which provides full and partial scholarships to participants who could not otherwise afford to attend classes, workshops and/or mentorships with the arts and culture program.

"So Small" will run from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday at the Broadway Commerce Center, 44 W. Broadway. Free: 541-636-3119 or www.artsandcultureeugene.org.